Prices Sent to Highest Levels of the Day From Bottom of a Wide Decline.

CLOSE OF MARKET STEADY

Only Weaker Shorts Covered and Offerings at Best Were Only Moderate.

(By Associated Press.) NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 17 .- The expected happened in the cotton market to-day and the recently created heavy short interest was put on the jump by rumors that spots sales for the day amounted to 15,000 bales. Before the weaker traders had finished covering prices were sent up above the highest levels of the day from the bottom of a wide decline. At the close prices of March, May and July were 60 to 64 points higher than the close of Monday.

The market opened with traders imrassive to several strong bullish features. A good spot demand was reported and holf the Liverpool and New York markets offered good reports to bate an advance on. The general disposition was to sell. About noon it almost amounted to a fever and the moderately wide advances of the earlier hours were entirely lost sight of, while wide declines were established, amounting to from it to the points under the highest prices immediately following the opening. There were no sellers and the bulls stood by and saw the shorts pile up sensational advances on themselves.

The close of the market was stendy. Curb prices were even higher than closing levels. It was clear that only the weaker shorts had covered during the afternoon, as offerings at the best were only moderate, and the volume of trade was not heavy, that is, compared with the trading that has been called heavy recently. A good spot demand was reported and

Frank P. Griggs Arrested in North Carolina and Taken Back. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

CHARLESTON, W. VA., Feb. 17.-Chief Howard G. Smith, of the Mountain State Detective Association, of this city, arrived here last night from Leakville, N. C., with Frank P. Griggs, who is wanted for alleged embezzlement of funds of the Prudential Insurance Comfunds of the Prudential insurince Colingary, whose agent he was in Fayette county, this State. Griggs was indicted along with William D. Myers. He and Myers were both captured by officers at Norton, Va., but in some way Griggs escaped.

The case was put in the hands of the detective association, and Griggs's arrest in North Carolina followed, the officers there having recognized him by a description sent out. Griggs came from Virginia originally, and claims to have relatives living at Martinsyllie, Va. He is twenty-two years of age. Officer Emith took Griggs to Fayette county to-day.

day. It is said Griggs and Myers had for some time issued fake life insurance poll-cles, Griggs acting as agent and signing the policies, while Myers acted as phy-

In this way they obtained several hundred dollars. When the fraud was discovered both fled.

We had a pink tea ut our palatial residence the other day, and now we feel the servant spilled some tea all over the tap of one of the guestesies, and one of the Six Barefoodd Ones put some tacks on the black mohair chair that our grandma lett to us in her will and another of those present sat on it. We didn't care much, for we love excitement, because we used to be the on e-bill reporter and went to all the
